DRB-HICOM

DRB-HICOM BERHAD

(Co. No. 203430-W)
(Incorporated in Malaysia)

CORPORATE DISCLOSURE POLICY

1.0 CORPORATE DISCLOSURE POLICY

A. Statement of the Policy

- (i) The Company is committed to provide accurate, clear, timely and complete disclosure of material information pertaining to the Company's performance and operations to the shareholders, stakeholders, analysts, journalists, the investing public or other persons in conformity with any and all applicable legal and regulatory requirements and ensuring equal access to such information to avoid an individual or selective disclosure.

- (ii) This Disclosure Policy applies to all Directors, management, officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. It outlines the Company's approach toward the determination and dissemination of material information especially price-sensitive information, the circumstances under which the confidentiality of the information will be maintained, and restrictions on insider trading. It also set out the internal procedural guidelines to facilitate implementation and consistent disclosure practices across DRB-HICOM Berhad ("DRB-HICOM") Group.

B. Objectives

The objectives of the Disclosure Policy are as follows :

- (i) to raise awareness and provide guidance to the Board of Directors ("Board"), management, officers and employees on the Company's disclosure requirements and practices;
- (ii) to provide guidelines and policies in disseminating corporate information to, and in dealing with shareholders, stakeholders, analysts, media, regulators and the investing public;
- (iii) to ensure compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements on disclosure of material information; and
- (iv) to build good investor relations with the investing public that inspires trust and confidence.

C. Scope and Application

- (i) The Disclosure Policy outlines the Company's approach toward the determination and dissemination of material information, the circumstances under which the confidentiality of information will be maintained, preventing abuse of undisclosed material information, monitoring and responding to market rumours, leaks and inadvertent disclosures and restrictions on insider trading. It also provides guidelines for achieving consistent disclosure practices across the DRB-HICOM Group.
- (ii) The Disclosure Policy applies to the conduct of directors, authorised spokesperson, management, officers and other employees of the Company with regard to handling and disclosing material information.

- (iii) The Disclosure Policy covers the following methods employed by the Company to communicate with the shareholders, stakeholders, analysts, media, regulators and the investing public:-
 - (a) documents filed with the regulators, written statements made in the Company's annual report, financial statements, quarterly reports, press releases, letters, circular to shareholders, e-mail communication and information on the Company's website; and
 - (b) oral statements made in group and individual meetings, telephone conversations, interviews and press conferences including video conferencing with financial analysts, investors and media.
- (iv) The Disclosure Policy does not apply to communication made in the ordinary course of business of the Company and its subsidiaries not involving material information.

2.0 INTERNAL STRUCTURE AND SYSTEM FOR CORPORATE DISCLOSURE

The Board is ultimately responsible for ensuring that the Disclosure Policy is implemented effectively and the disclosure requirements as set out are duly fulfilled.

The Board delegates the implementation of the Disclosure Policy to the Management Committee of DRB-HICOM ("Manco").

A. Corporate Disclosure Committee ("CDC")

- (i) The CDC consists of the Group Managing Director, Group Director of Corporate Affairs/Company Secretary and Head of Corporate Planning.
- (ii) The CDC has been established to oversee all matters relating to the Company's corporate disclosure practices and to ensure adherence to the Disclosure Policy.

- (iii) The functions and responsibilities of the CDC include:-
 - (a) maintaining an awareness and understanding of the corporate disclosure requirements and any changes thereto;
 - (b) ascertaining whether corporate developments, transactions and other events constitute material information and if so, ensuring the procedures outlined in the Disclosure Policy are fully adhered to;
 - (c) implementing and monitoring of compliance with the Disclosure Policy and undertaking reviews of any violations, including assessment and implementation of appropriate consequences and remedial actions; and
 - (d) reviewing and updating the Disclosure Policy from time to time to ensure compliance with the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad ("Bursa Securities") and other regulatory requirements.

B. Authorised Spokesperson

- (i) The authorised spokesperson for the Company is the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Group Managing Director ("GMD") and any other Officers as may be authorised by the GMD.
- (ii) The authorised spokesperson shall not disclose material information that has not been previously made public. He/she may, from time to time, respond to specific inquiries from the investment community or media.

- (iii) Employees other than the authorised spokesperson shall not respond to inquiries from the investment community or media unless authorised to do so by the authorised spokesperson. All such queries should be referred to the authorised spokesperson.
- (iv) The Head of Investor Relations and the Head of Corporate Communications will be involved in scheduling and developing communications and presentations for all meetings with the investment community and media.
- (v) If there is any doubt about the appropriateness of supplying information to an outside party, an employee should contact the authorised spokesperson for advice.

3.0 PROCEDURES AND PRACTICES ON CORPORATE DISCLOSURE

A. Material Information

- (i) Material information is any information about the Company and its subsidiaries which are reasonably expected to have a material effect on:
 - (a) the market price, value or market activity of the Company's securities; and
 - (b) the decision of a holder of securities or an investor in determining his choice of action.
- (ii) The following are some examples of events which may require immediate disclosure as set out in Paragraph 9.04 of the Main Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Securities ("Main LR") (This list is not exhaustive and the Company has to exercise its own judgement in making materiality determination):

- (a) the entry into a joint venture agreement or merger;
- (b) the acquisition or loss of a material contract, franchise or distributorship rights;
- (c) the introduction of a new product or discovery;
- (d) a change in management;
- (e) the borrowing of funds;
- (f) the commencement of or the involvement in litigation and any material development arising from such litigation;
- (g) the commencement of arbitration proceedings or proceedings involving alternative dispute resolution methods and any material development arising from such proceedings;
- (h) the purchase or sale of an asset;
- (i) a change in capital investment plans;
- (j) the occurrence of a labour dispute or disputes with sub-contractors or suppliers;
- (k) the making of a tender offer for another corporation's securities;
- (l) the occurrence of an event of default on interest, principal payments or both in respect of loans;
- (m) a change in general business direction;
- (n) a change of intellectual property rights;
- (o) the entry into a memorandum of understanding;

- (p) the entry into any call or put option or financial futures contract;
 - (q) a natural disaster such as fire, flood, landslide, earthquake and the like, or any major market upheaval in the industries, countries, regions where the group has operations or transactions;
 - (r) any change of accounting policy or adoption of new accounting standards which may have adverse implication on the group;
 - (s) an event which is beyond the control of the group such as fuel price increase or interest rate hike; or
 - (t) a significant change in the group's dividend policy.
- (iii) Materiality can be very subjective and the Company will take the approach of assessing the likely effect of the information on the price scope of activities and financial position or performance of the Company's securities, in addition to whether the circumstances or events are measurable and trigger the materiality thresholds in the percentage ratio calculation method set out in the Main LR.
- (iv) DRB-HICOM must immediately announce to Bursa Securities the events as set out in Paragraph 9.19 of the Main LR as per Appendix 1 attached and as amended from time to time.

B. Responsibility to report on significant Corporate Development

- (i) It is essential that the CDC and authorised spokesperson be fully informed of all the Company's developments that could potentially impact the disclosure process.

- (ii) It is the responsibility of the corporate and business unit departments to keep the CDC and the spokespersons fully apprised of all significant developments in the Company so as to:
 - (a) facilitate determination of materiality, appropriateness and timing for public disclosure of the information, or whether the information should remain confidential;
 - (b) ensure appropriate understandings of significant developments and updates which may be relevant to ongoing communications with the investing public; and
 - (c) avoid denying significant developments when in fact, such developments are occurring.

If in doubt, kindly contact the primary contact persons as listed under Item 5.0 Contact details.

C. Responsibilities and Procedures for Disclosure of Material Information

- (i) The CDC will manage all of the Company's releases of announcements of material information to Bursa Securities through the Corporate Secretarial Department/Investor Relations Department.
- (ii) The Corporate Planning, Investor Relations and the Corporate Secretarial teams or the appointed merchant bank will draft the announcement which will then be reviewed by the CDC to ensure compliance with the Main LR and accuracy of the contents in the announcement.

- (iii) The Finance, Legal Affairs and the relevant departments or business units have the duty to review and verify the accuracy of all financial data and all information contained in the announcement.
- (iv) All announcements will be approved by the GMD or his/her designate before release to Bursa Securities.
- (v) If the CDC believes it would assist in having the news or material information better understood and widely disseminated, the Company may request Bursa Securities for a suspension in the trading of the Company's securities, so that an announcement can be made during trading hours.
- (vi) For announcements which are to be released to the media, it will be released through Corporate Communications Department. The CDC has the overall responsibility to ensure that the content clearly and effectively communicates the intended substance and meaning of the information to the public.
- (vii) Once the announcement has been released to Bursa Securities, it will then be released to all major newspapers and newswire service to ensure the widest possible public dissemination. In addition, the announcement or news release will be made available and accessible on the Company's website.
- (viii) After public dissemination, the announcement or news release will be monitored by the Investor Relations and Corporate Communications Departments to ensure accurate media reporting and will take any corrective measures, if necessary.
- (ix) If necessary, the Company will file a material change report with Bursa Securities.

D. Withholding Confidential Information

- (i) The Company will only withhold material information from the public for legitimate business purposes. These include:
 - (a) when immediate disclosure would prejudice the ability of the Company to pursue its corporate objectives;
 - (b) when the facts are in a state of flux and a more appropriate moment for disclosure is imminent; and
 - (c) where the company or securities laws restrict such disclosure.

- (ii) Persons privy to the confidential material information shall not divulge the information to anyone else except in the course of business. Each person on the privy list is to sign a confidentiality agreement.

- (iii) In such cases, the following precautions will be observed to keep the information completely confidential:-
 - (a) Documents and files containing confidential information should be kept in a safe place to which access is restricted to individuals who "need-to-know" that information in the necessary course of business and code names should be used if necessary.

Transmission of documents by electronic means shall be made only where it can be made and received under secure conditions.

- (b) If and when the information is disclosed in the necessary course of business, recipients of such information will be made aware of the need to keep the information confidential inside and outside the Company.
- (c) Confidentiality Agreements will be used to ensure protection of the confidentiality by third parties eg. advisors, lawyers, consultants, business associates/partners, etc.
- (iv) The above responsibilities and procedures shall also apply during the period of time when news releases involving material information are being developed, until the information has been released and disseminated to the investing public.
- (v) If at any time, confidential material information is inadvertently leaked resulting in selective disclosures, the CDC will initiate a process to ensure that full and accurate public disclosure is made.

E. Responding to Market Rumours or Reports

- (i) Whenever the Company becomes aware of any rumour or report, true or false, that contains material information, the Company will make due inquiry and immediately publicly clarify, confirm or deny the rumour or report through Bursa Securities.
- (ii) The Company will publicly clarify any rumour or report which is in any form whatsoever and howsoever including that by word-of-mouth and not limited to an article or otherwise, published in a newspaper, newswire, magazine, a broker's market report or any other publication.

- (iii) In the case of a rumour or report containing erroneous material information which has been circulated, the Company will immediately announce to Bursa Securities a denial or clarification of the rumour or report and provide facts sufficient to support the denial or to clarify any misleading aspects of the rumour or report.

A reasonable effort will be made to bring the announcement to the attention of the particular group that initially distributed it. In the case of an erroneous newspaper article, for example, this will be done by sending a copy of the announcement to the newspaper's financial editor, or in the case of an erroneous broker's market report, by sending a copy to the broker responsible for the report.

- (iv) In the case of a rumour or report containing material information that is correct, an announcement setting forth the facts will be prepared for public release, which will include but not limited to, an indication of the state of negotiations or of corporate plans in the rumoured area.

Such announcements are essential even if the matter has yet to be presented to the Company's Board of Directors for consideration.

- (v) In the case of a rumour or report predicting future sales, earnings or other quantitative data, the Company normally will not response to the same.

However, if such a report is based on or contains erroneous information, or is wrongly attributed to the Company, the Company will respond promptly to the supposedly factual elements of the rumour or report as required under Paragraphs 9.09 and 9.10 of the Main LR. In addition, the Company will include in the announcement a statement to the effect that the Company has made no such prediction and currently knows of no facts that would justify making such a prediction.

- (vi) The CDC will also recommend an appropriate course of action where the Company or an employee of the Company is the apparent source of the rumour.

F. Communications with Financial Analysts, Media and Investing Public

- (i) The authorised spokesperson is permitted to participate in briefing sessions with financial analysts, media and investing public on behalf of the Company.
- (ii) Persons who are authorised by the authorised spokesperson to speak at briefings or interviews, must forward the briefing materials/information and obtain approval/clearance from the CDC before the actual briefing or interview.
- (iii) Briefing materials/information from such briefing sessions will be made available on the Company's website, if appropriate after the presentation is made. Interested investors who lack access to the Internet will be mailed a copy of the briefing materials/information upon request.
- (iv) The Company will provide only factual and non-speculative information during such briefings.
- (v) If material non-public information is inadvertently disclosed at such a briefing, the Company will take immediate action to achieve broad public dissemination of the information in accordance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

- (vi) The Company does not discriminate among recipients of information. Under no circumstances will the Company confirm or attempt to influence a financial analyst's opinions or conclusions, speculate about future business plans or provide specific "bottom-line" financial expectations for the Company. The Company will provide the same information to both financial analysts and individual investors when requested.
- (vii) The Company will not comment on opinions made by analysts except where it is a factual error.
- (viii) A record of all briefings (which include handouts) will be maintained by the Investor Relations Department.

G. Forward-looking Information

- (i) The Company may provide forward-looking information to the investing public to enable reasoned evaluations of the Company and its future performance prospects provided that it is not undisclosed material information, it does not deal with future earnings, and it has been prepared or reviewed by the CDC. Such information could include prospects, revenue or profits estimates, forecasts, projections or internal targets and key performance indicators. Such information will be consistent with and complementary to information that has been otherwise provided via timely disclosure documents such as annual reports, news releases, quarterly reports, etc.
- (ii) Documents containing forward-looking information will be accompanied by a disclaimer cautioning the reader that there are risks and uncertainties that can cause actual results to differ materially from what is indicated in the document. When making oral forward-looking statements, reasonable care will be taken to also include appropriate reference to such risks and uncertainties in the discussion.

H. Reviewing Analyst Reports

The Company may be requested to review draft analysts' reports from time to time. Only the authorised spokesperson or the Head of Investor Relations will comment on the analysts' reports, and such comments will be limited to identifying publicly disclosed factual information that could affect the analysts' reports and to pointing out inaccuracies or omissions with reference to publicly available information.

I. The Company's Website

- (i) The Company's website (www.drb-hicom.com) provides an avenue for the shareholders and the investing public to access information pertaining to the Company. It contains an "Investor Relations" section.
- (ii) All disclosure and material information documents of interest to investors will be made available and accessible by the public on the website as soon as after their release through the newswire service. These include corporate proposals, meetings, announcements, financial reporting and all other announcements that are required pursuant to the Main LR.
- (iii) The Head of Investor Relations is responsible for ensuring that the information contained in the "Investor Relations" section of the website is accurate and will be kept up-to-date.

J. Restrictions on Insider Trading

- (i) Anyone who has access to material information of the Company, its financial condition and its operations, is regarded as an Insider. Material information which is in the possession of an Insider and has not been disclosed to the investing public is Inside Information.

- (ii) Insiders may not deal in the Company's securities while in possession of Inside Information, nor may they pass on that information to help another person deal in the Company's securities.
- (iii) The relevant provisions of the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007 apply to all Insiders.
- (iv) From time to time, the Company Secretary will advise the Directors and principal officers on the trading restrictions in the Company's securities in accordance with the provisions of the Main LR.

4.0 CONSEQUENCES FOR NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE DISCLOSURE POLICY

An employee who violates the Disclosure Policy may face disciplinary action, which may result in the termination of employment. The violation of the Disclosure Policy may also violate certain securities laws.

If the Company discovers that an employee has violated such securities laws, it may refer the matter to the appropriate regulatory authorities, which could lead to penalties, fines or imprisonment.
